4th UEFA Football Law Programme – Applications now open

Dear Sir or Madam,

The UEFA Football Law Programme was designed specifically for legal specialists in UEFA's member associations, which face constantly evolving legal challenges. Given the inherent complexity of these issues, the programme also encourages cooperation between various stakeholders, so that members of the football community are better equipped to take on future challenges in this rapidly evolving field.

While enabling participants to continue to develop professionally, the UEFA Football Law Programme also serves as academic recognition for their work. The programme comprises four intensive week-long sessions over a period of 12 months. All four sessions must be attended in full, so participants need to be released by their employers. While demanding, the course can still be combined with their normal professional activities. The knowledge, experience and networks gained will, of course, also benefit the associations.

The fourth UEFA FLP maintains the high educational standards and success of the previous three editions, and builds on experience while introducing new ideas and topics through new partnerships.

The UEFA FLP is designed for those who have not previously attended any football law programme. Primarily open to national associations' legal counsel, the programme is addressed to employees of clubs, professional leagues, players unions and law firms. All participants should have at least two years' experience in law and have a good command of spoken and written English.

In the case of national association staff, the president or general secretary must sign the application form, and each association may put only one applicant forward. UEFA will cover all their course fees together with flights, accommodation, lunches and coffee breaks. Evening dinners and other expenses, such as local transport, must be covered by the participants themselves.

The online application form is available at <https://uefaacademy.com/courses/flp/>. Applications must reach UEFA by 30 May 2021 at the latest.

If you have any questions about this programme, please feel free to contact academy@uefa.ch.

Yours faithfully,

U E F A

General Secretary

A PROGRAMME FOR LEGAL SPECIALISTS WHO WANT TO UPDATE AND DEEPEN THEIR UNDERSTANDING OF FOOTBALL LAW

FORWORD FROM THE UEFA PRESIDENT

My whole professional life has been devoted to law and football – they are my work, but also my passion. More than ever, I value and appreciate how vital law is to football, especially in the constantly evolving and complex world of this wonderful sport.

As a key element of our unique suite of educational initiatives, the UEFA Football Law Programme seeks to address these challenges. By bringing together the various stakeholders at different levels of European football, the course aims to foster an open dialogue, creating an optimal environment for further development and protection of the game, and achieve a balance that works for everyone.

In this way, you can help make all our football associations more efficient, generate awareness of the specific challenges posed by football law and ensure the long-term health of the game in Europe.

Aleksander Čeferin
UEFA President

UEFA Football Law Programme (UEFA FLP)

A programme for legal specialists who want to update and deepen their understanding of football law

The UEFA Football Law Programme (FLP) comprises four week-long sessions that address key issues of football law. Designed and run by UEFA in close collaboration with internationally renowned academic experts and practitioners, the programme is intended for legal specialists who need insight into the most recent developments in football law while broadening their understanding of the issues. To encourage the exchange of ideas and opinions, the UEFA FLP is open to a wide range of participants with different backgrounds and from a variety of organisations.

On completing the UEFA FLP, graduates will have:

- a deeper knowledge of football law;
- a better understanding of the latest jurisprudence;
- experience of presenting in front of the CAS;
- a strong network of legal specialists in football.

Testimonials

“The UEFA FLP is an incredible programme for anyone who wants to learn and deepen their knowledge of football law. It has the best speakers, who offer practical perspectives on the subjects but are also connected to universities and contribute in-depth academic content. Not forgetting the endless opportunities for networking. It has been an amazing experience which benefited my daily work at the Portuguese Football Federation. I highly recommend it!”

■ Marta Cruz, Head of the Legal department, Portuguese Football Federation

“The FLP far exceeded my expectations of a practical and specialised course in sports law. In addition to an excellent programme at a high level, in which the content is presented by proven experts, I met exceptional people, both professionally and in terms of character. As a club lawyer, I still benefit greatly from the knowledge I acquired and the broad network I built up. The programme was an absolute enrichment for me and can be highly recommended to every ambitious club lawyer.”

■ Tarek Brauer, Vice-President of Legal and Human Resources, member of the board, SV Werder Bremen

“If you want to gain a 360-degree perspective on football law and broaden your knowledge, this programme is an excellent opportunity, plus you’ll feel chosen with the network it provides. Being a student again after a long break in such a friendly atmosphere encouraged each of us to be more open-minded and exchange ideas. In this specific area of law, not only carefully selected lecturers, but also your classmates will ensure you can improve beyond your expectations.”

By welcoming participants from a variety of backgrounds and organisations, this programme fosters such collaboration in your daily work. ”
