President of the Croatian Football Federation

MARIJAN KUSTIĆ

Dear friends of football,

we can look back to another amazing year, that will be remembered as one of the most successful, most important, and most beautiful in the history of Croatian football.

If this bronze medal at the FIFA World Cup in Qatar was the only highlight of 2022, it would still be amazing. However, the extraordinary success of our national team was supported by other success, both on and off the field. Over 100 pages of this annual report are barely enough to summarize all the important activities, projects, and results that we have accomplished in the previous year.

Of course, the bronze medal is the peak of all achievements. Even now, it is difficult to really comprehend the value and the meaning of this success. Small Croatia has two consecutive medals, three in total, from the biggest football competition in the world. No matter how many times we repeat this, it seems incredible. We are not even aware that we really are the only country in the world with such a small base and such results. Italy, Germany, Brazil, England, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands - all of these football powerhouses can only wish they were as successful as Croatia in Russia and Qatar.

The bronze medal from Qatar has additional value because it was won with a rather refreshed and rejuvenated team, if compared to Russia '18. Alongside silver-winning veterans Modrić, Perišić, Kovačić, Brozović, Lovren, and Kramarić, we've had new heroes in the leading roles: Livaković, Gvardiol, Sosa, Juranović, Petković, Oršić, Vlašić, Pašalić, Livaja, Majer... this is the unprecedented wealth of Croatian football, and the greatest success of our brilliant head coach Zlatko Dalić. Due to this successful change in generations, Croatia has not only one more medal, but also a team for the next five or ten years. Let's not forget, players like Šutalo, Stanišić, Sučić or Erlić have experienced valuable moments in Qatar, and they represent the future of our national team.

I would like to use this opportunity to congratulate and thank our head coach Dalić, his fantastic staff and the entire delegation - together with our great players, they have created wonderful atmosphere within the team, and brought so much joy to Croatia. This joy culminated in another spectacular welcome in Zagreb, and later in other cities in Croatia.

It is impossible to look back at Qatar, and the entire 2022, without mentioning Luka Modrić. Another Champions League, another brilliant performance in Croatia shirt. Luka has once again reached the utmost heights, both on team and individual level. Even before 2022, Luka has deserved to be called the greatest footballer in Croatian history, and now he has made several steps forward on a global scale. Just a few players have performed at a top level at his age, and Luka is no longer just one of the best midfielders of the previous decade, but one of the best midfielders of all time. Hats off to our maestro!

That Croatia is a quality team on a global scale, we knew even before Qatar. The Vatreni have topped the group with France, Denmark, and Austria to reach the UEFA Nations League Final Four. This is another extraordinary feat, which included impressive victories in Paris and Copenhagen. Full of optimism, we await the Nations League final tournament in Netherlands, proud to see Croatia among the biggest European teams.

What made 2022 extra special are the achievements of other Croatia national teams. The U21s have reached their third consecutive European Championships - congratulations are in order for head coach Igor Bišćan, his coaching staff and all the players. The U19s and U17s have reached the Elite Rounds in their qualifying campaigns, and the respective women's national teams have reached the same level of competition. To round things off, Croatia national futsal team reached the Elite Round of the FIFA Futsal World Cup qualifying campaign, as the group winners. Congratulations to all the head coaches and all the players, these are exceptional results!

On the club level, Dinamo stands out with his European success, especially the victory over Chelsea in the Champions League. The interesting conclusion of the domestic league also saw Dinamo celebrate, while the Hajduk took the trophy in the exciting finale of the Croatian Cup in Split.

Off the field, among the numerous projects and activities, it is worth to mention two steps in the right direction. The record-breaking contract on marketing and television rights has secured significant increase in funding of Croatian clubs, while further investments in infrastructure have resulted in the opening of new football fields with artificial turf all over the country. In several years, HNS has built eight hybrid pitches and 21 artificial turfs, as infrastructure remains among the priorities in the upcoming period. Therefore, we are also extremely happy to see NK Osijek stadium being almost done, and we are eager to see Croatia national team play its first match at this beautiful arena.

I believe that this annual reports excellently represents the scope of activities at the Croatian Football Federation. Therefore, I would like to thank all of my colleagues in the HNS management, members of the Assembly and the Executive Committee, HNS employees, county associations, clubs, head coaches and coaches, players, referees, and all other football officials that have contributed to the success of Croatian football, the success that has greatly surpassed the realistic expectations of our country in 2022.

I wish that all of us work with the same enthusiasm in 2023, and we look forward to more success of Croatian football!

CROATIA FOR

HISTORY

FIFA World Cup in Doha: The icing on the Croatian football cake in 2022

QATARI BRONZE TO CONTINUE THE FANTASTIC STREAK

With "My homeland" playing from the loudspeakers, and at the Khalifa International Stadium podium overjoyed Croatia internationals were celebrating yet another magnificent success of this "small country for major football achievements".

Led by triumphant head coach Zlatko Dalić and extraordinary captain Luka Modrić, the Vatreni secured the third place at the FIFA World Cup in Qatar, four years after the phenomenal silver-winning campaign at the FIFA World Cup in Russia. Following the bronze medal in France '98, many have thought: it happened once, who knows when again... They were wrong.

As of 1998, Croatia has won three World Cup medals. In the same period, only France and Germany have more. One more. Moreover, Croatia is only the third nation to win three medals in the first six World Cup appearances, alongside Brazil and Germany.

The moment when Mislav Oršić waits for Livaja's perfect pass and strikes from his "zone"... The cling when the ball bounces off the post, and the thundering roar of Croatian supporters in the stands. The closure of the magnificent Croatia's performance in Qatar. As if it was meant to be.

A WORLD CUP at Qatar 2022™

In the group stage, Croatia faced Morocco (0:0), Canada (4:1), and Belgium (0:0), gradually raising the bar. The Moroccans were a tough nut to crack, and they confirmed at the very beginning they also have potential to succeed. The second match affirmed Croatia's splendour, as the Vatreni responded to Canada's head coach provoking words and made Milan Borjan to pick up plenty of balls from his own net. Thus, the decider against Belgium brought forward the invincible Dominik Livaković and impassable Joško Gvardiol, as Croatia withstood every challenge and secured a draw necessary to reach the knockout stages.

The clash with Japan in the Round of 16 provided the first dramatic happy ending and two heroes: the author of the fantastic equalizer, Ivan Perišić, and the penalty shootout master, Dominik Livaković, who saved three spot kicks as Croatia reached the quarterfinals. Then, against Brazil, two heroes: Bruno Petković with the late equalizer, in the second extra-time closing minutes, and again the great Dominik Livaković, who saved Rodrygo's effort and saw Marquinhos hit the post. Another

Croatia's party, another semifinals berth.

The series of unfavourable circumstances and quality Argentine performance have stopped Croatia from reaching the second consecutive FIFA World Cup finals, but the Vatreni did not despair. With heads held high, they were determined to leave Qatar as winners. And they did so. In style. Croatia is no longer the "small country for major football achievements", but the football powerhouse with the continuity of magnificent achievements.

“ I'm not sure what to say, the emotions go both ways. We are a bit disappointed, but also happy with a draw. We could have done better, but in some moments we were not relaxed enough, I don't know why. We'll fix it. It was important to get through the first match, since the expectations are high, but Morocco also had something to say. They are a seriously tough team. They have fantastic players and they fought bravely. I believe that this Croatian team can do a lot better in the next match, and we definitely need to pick up three points. ”

“ I've seen Joško's photo with his mum, it was really heartwarming. That moment is the image of Croatia national team, and I'm proud of it. I congratulate his mother on raising such a son, it gives me goosebumps. That is the photo of the day, of the month, of the year. To have such a son, and such a player - humble and playing at a high level - is a great accomplishment, it is a product of the upbringing and faith. I support these values and I'm proud of it. Our logo is 'family' and it brought us here. Joško is the best centre-back in the world, and we can be proud of that too. Lovren supports him fantastically, both on and off the field, Vida also helps with advice and support... I'm thrilled to see how well “

“ After what happened in Russia, this is really exceptional. We knew it would be difficult against a good team that managed to beat Germany and Spain. We prepared well and deserved to reach the quarterfinals. Just like at the previous World Cup, we showed our mental strength. Even when we were losing, we did not give up, we've had the mentality of a winner. Croatia is a great, strong group and it is difficult to play against us. Every player has to be involved if you want to win, and when you have a quality goalkeeper, everything gets easier. I'm happy for Livaković, this was his night, he earned it through his hard work and I hope he'll keep doing the same. ”

“ This was a great achievement for us and for Croatian football, we can be happy and proud of our performances, and of our behaviour at this World Cup. There is a small regret about missing out on the final, but we have a medal and we go home as winners, that was very important. In time, we will comprehend how important it was to reaffirm Croatia's success from Russia four years ago. This proves that the 1998 and 2018 medals are no coincidence, this confirms that Croatian football has enough quality to belong to world's elite. We need to keep going.”

A night scene with a crowd and a street lamp decorated with lights. The scene is illuminated with a warm, reddish-orange glow. A tall street lamp on the right is adorned with strings of white lights. In the background, a crowd of people is visible, some holding flags and others taking photos with their phones. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.

“ Once again, we managed to unite Croatia – the boys showed unity, humility, bravery, determination, patriotism, and faith. And, because of that, God awarded them! This is no coincidence. We are once again the proudest nation in the world. This is the Croatia of our dreams, this is my Croatia, and this is the Croatia that we deserve to have. We embody our values in everything we do. Thank you for your support and belief in this team! ”

Zlatko Dalić

THE SPECTACULAR WELCOME FOR THE BRONZE-WINNING VATRENI

Croatia has thrilled the nation once again. The bronze-winning Vatreni have enjoyed a spectacular welcome in Zagreb. The welcome they have been dreaming of, and the welcome they have truly deserved.

It was a privilege to repeat the sharing the joy of extraordinary football success with ten or hundred thousands of fans in Croatian capital. Despite the cold, the people have shown how much this success of the Vatreni means to them. Indeed, every single fan who came to greet the team, from the Zagreb airport to the main square, deserves respect.

The path was the same as in 2018, when the Vatreni travelled from the Zagreb airport to the Ban Jelačić Square following the silver-winning FIFA World Cup campaign. The rest is history... and another story of the unity of Croatia national football team and overjoyed supporters. One soul. One heart, a big heart of Croatian people and the Vatreni. That feeling of pride and the surge of emotions that is impossible to stop. Faces of people who welcome you with open hearts full of love. An experience to remember, a memory for a lifetime. The Advent fairytale for all time.

Driving through the city, the Vatreni stopped for moment, at the main fire station, to change the bus: to enter the open, panoramic vehicle with the visible sign "Family", that brought them to Zagreb's main square, the square that was very much alive for hours.

Many have answered the call of the Croatian Football Federation and the national team: Daleka obala, Dalmatino, Opća opasnost, Slavonia bend, Zaprešić Boys, Sv. Juraj - Croatian Navy band that performed the national anthem, and Sv. Mihovil, the police band. The iconic band Prljavo kazalište set the main square on fire just like they did in 1989, while Jura Stublić & Film performed the songs that spontaneously became the hits of the Vatreni in Qatar.

Many thanks go to Croatian government and the City of Zagreb, for their cooperation and support in the organization of this spectacular welcome, as well as the Ministry of the Interior and all the police officers who took care of the national team and fan security issues, firefighters, street cleaners, and all the others who did their jobs in a professional manner, including HNS employees for their efforts.

Even more people deserve thanks: event coordinator Joško Lokas, HRT and other media, technical staff, presenters Iva Šulentić and Luka Bulić, and every other person who contributed to the event, sending a beautiful picture from the streets of Zagreb to the entire world.

YOU ARE OUR CAPTAIN, WE ARE YOUR LUKA (ENG. HAVEN)

In 2022, Croatia national team captain Luka Modrić has continued to thrill the football world with his skills and youthful longevity, with the World Cup bronze medal coming to crown the entire year. Luka has won a number of prestigious individual awards.

Luka Modrić led Croatia to bronze at the World Cup in Qatar, and thanks to his inspired performances, he earned the Bronze Ball in the selection for the best players of the World Cup. The Golden Ball for the best player of the tournament went to Lionel Messi, and Kylian Mbappé was the second.

He came ninth in the France Football's Ballon d'Or awards, when his Real Madrid teammate Karim Benzema took the trophy. Luka, the 2018 Ballon d'Or winner, was as successful as Benzema in Real Madrid, being one of the key players on the road towards the Champions League title.

Moreover, Luka Modrić came fifth in the UEFA Player of the Year awards, courtesy of the votes from sports journalists all over Europe, and the representatives of the clubs involved in UEFA competitions.

Following another Champions League season, UEFA has selected the UCL Team of the Season, with Real Madrid and Croatia midfielder securing his place for the sixth time. In the ideal midfield, he was selected alongside Fabinho and De Bruyne, with Courtois between the posts, Robertson, Van Dijk, Rudiger, and Alexander-Arnold in defence, and Vinicius Junior, Benzema, and Mbappe in attack.

Furthermore, Luka Modrić was included in the Top 100 footballers of all-time according to prominent British magazine FourFourTwo, at No. 79. Croatia captain has also earned the Spanish newspaper Marca Leyenda award, intended for true greats with impressive careers.

What Luka was especially excited about in 2022 is a major jubilee: in June, at the Nations League encounter with France in Split, he celebrated his 150th Croatia cap. That evening, he received a special Croatia shirt from the hands of HNS president Marijan Kustić and technical director Stipe Pletikosa, while the supporters in the stands prepared a spectacular performance - his image covered the stand before the kick-off.

On a giant flag, they wrote: "You are our captain, we are your haven" (eng. haven = cro. luka).

Nothing more to add...

CROATIA'S NATIONS LEAGUE FAIRYTALE PROVIDES A HAPPY ENDING

«UEFA Nations League was no fairytale», admitted Croatia head coach Zlatko Dalić after his team finally managed to prove its quality in that competition, from June to September 2022, writing another glorious chapter of Croatian football.

In the first two UEFA Nations League seasons, Croatia defeated Spain and Sweden, drew with England, but other results were no smooth sailing for head coach Dalić and his men. Even the third season did not look very promising: in Osijek, Austria added to the anxiety overcoming the Vatreni (0:3).

Still, as is often the case with Croatia national team, when the going gets tough, the tough get going. Against France in Split, Croatia secured the first point, courtesy of Kramarić's calmly converted spot kick, and then Pašalić struck in the second half of the Copenhagen encounter to beat the strong Danish side.

If four matches in ten days were not demanding enough, the fourth was a visit to Stade de France, to face the world champions and seek the first every victory over the French team. With just five minutes gone, Croatia captain Modrić converted a penalty - and the fantastic, defying Croatians maintained the lead to celebrate a historic win.

«There aren't many team that can come back in the way we did. This is definitely one of my favourite victories, and we have expanded the squad with several important players», emphasized Dalić following the triumphant return from Paris, aware of some excellent young solutions for the World Cup in Qatar.

The job in the UEFA Nations League, however, was far from finished, regarding the possibility of winning the group. In September, Denmark visited Zagreb, managed to equalize after Sosa provided the lead, but it was Majer who found the net ten minutes from time (2:1). This win allowed Croatia plenty of hope as the Vatreni travelled to Vienna.

At Ernst Happel Stadium, Modrić was quick to score, but Baumgartner was even quicker to equalize. The decisive moments came after one hour of play: Livaja and Lovren (3:1) enthroned Croatia at the top of the UEFA Nations League group and secured the first Final Four appearance!

«Now we have the opportunity to win this trophy, and that's a major achievement for Croatian football, an important success. I believe every Croat can be proud, since these players wear the shirt with pride and fight until the very end. I'm happy, now you see how Croatia can rejoice. Croatian sport is like that, the guys were pushing hard even in difficult moments», summarized Dalić.

Croatia's affair with the UEFA Nations League was no love at first sight, yet things are warming up, with the best part of this romance perhaps in the making. The semifinal clash with the hosts Netherlands is scheduled for 14 June - the other encounter sees Italy take on Spain - and the trophy isn't elusive...

THE YOUNG VATRENI REACH THIRD CONSECUTIVE U-21 EUROS

Croatia U-21 national team, led by head coach Igor Bišćan, secured third consecutive U-21 European Championships, via play-offs, and awaits the final tournament in Romania and Georgia in June and July 2023.

The young Vatreni have started the calendar year at the top of its qualifying group, with six consecutive victories and 18 points, but complicated the matters with the draw against Austria (0:0) and the loss against Finland (2:3).

Later on, Croatia U-21 completed the group stage with a defeat at Norway (2:3) and the victory at Estonia (4:0), finishing behind Norway to reach the play-off stage. In Nyon, Croatia drew Denmark as the final opponent on the road to the EURO.

«Denmark is a really tough team, they missed on the direct qualification just because of the goal-difference. They play in high rhythm, full of energy, they are aggressive and full of quality, especially going forward. However, our expectations are clear, there isn't much philosophy: we need to do everything possible to reach our objective», said Bišćan before the matches.

In the first leg, Croatia defeated Denmark 2:1 at Aldo Drosina Stadium in Pula, taking the lead through Gabriel Vidović on nine minutes, and doubling the lead on 37 minutes, when Dion Drena Beljo scored. Then, Denmark found the net, courtesy of Tengstedt on 59 minutes.

Following the encounter in Pula,

Croatia travelled to Danish city of Vejle, to see the hosts open the second leg in extraordinary manner. Ten minutes gone, O'Riley headed one in, and nine minutes later Frendrup struck from distance to make it 2:0. This result stood until the 84th minute, when Croatia substitutes create a move to force the game into extra-time - Biuk crossed, Šimić assisted, and Matanović scored.

In extra-time, Croatia missed a couple of promising opportunities, but finally it all came down to a penalty shootout. Kotarski managed to save Kristensen's and Ross' efforts, and Marco Pašalić sealed the aggregate win. Croatia was going to the U-21 EURO for the third time in a row!

«This is a major success for Croatian football, and for these players. They have presented mental strength, fighting for Croatia with all their hearts, and their quality was never in doubt. They have all given their contribution. It was not easy, there were health and injury issues, we were missing plenty of standard players. We did not complain, we invested further effort to reach the objective. It makes us even more happy», said Bišćan following the successful completion of the qualifying campaign.

At the final tournament, Croatia will play in the Group B, alongside hosts Romania, Ukraine and Spain. The first match is scheduled for 21 June (18:00) in Bucharest against Ukraine, at Giulesti Stadium. The same stadium will host the match with Spain, on 24 June (20:45), while Croatia faces Romania at Steaua Stadium in Bucharest, on 27 June (20:45).

«We can be happy with the draw. Romania is one of the hosts, there are Ukraine and Spain, and we have enough time to prepare. The most important thing is to have as many quality players as possible, then we can be really competitive. We believe in our boys, and we believe we can reach the second round», said head coach Igor Bišćan.

YOUNGSTERS RECORD EXCELLENT RESULTS

Croatia national futsal team participated in the 2022 Futsal EURO in Netherlands, and was eliminated in the group stage following the defeat against Slovakia (3:5) in the third match. Marinko Mavrović's men opened the tournament with the victory over Poland (3:1), and later lost to Russia (0:4).

After the tournament, Mavrović started a certain change in generations, and introduced younger players to the team that went on to perform well and win the Group 7 of the 2024 FIFA Futsal World Cup first round qualifying, and reached the Elite Round.

Croatia U-19 futsal team, led by head coach Duje Maretić, also appeared at the European Championship; now it gets the opportunity to play at the next one as the host team, in September in Poreč.

Led by head coach Josip Šimunić, Croatia U-19 national team reached the Elite Round in the qualifying campaign for the European Championships in Malta, while the Croatia U-17 national team secured the Elite Round berth led by Robert Jarni, on the road towards the European Championships in Hungary. The women's national teams were equally successful: Božidar Miletić's WU-19 team won all qualifiers to reach the second stage on the road towards the European Championships in Belgium, while Stella Gotal's WU-17 team managed to reach the second qualifying stage seeking the European Championships in Estonia.

With Nenad Gračan at the helm, Croatia women senior national team continued to improve, on both performance and outcome levels. The World Cup qualifying campaign was closed with a victory over Lithuania, courtesy of a farewell goal by Iva Lažeta. The long-term Croatia captain retired from international duty following an impressive career. Earlier in Karlovac, she enjoyed a ceremony to bid her farewell in front of the home crowd. Later on, Croatia faced Azerbaijan in two friendlies, securing a win (2:1) and a draw (0:0).

DINAMO CONTINUES STREAK THEN DOWNS CHELSEA. HAJDUK LIFTS THE CUP TROPHY

Last year, Dinamo continued to dominate in the domestic league, winning their fifth consecutive title, no. 23 in total since Croatia gained independence. Dinamo finished top with seven points in front of second-placed Hajduk and ten points in front of third-placed Osijek.

Hajduk icon Marko Livaja was the top goalscorer with 28 goals, while Hrvatski dragovoljac was relegated, to be replaced by second-tier champions Varaždin, who were quickly promoted back to the elite.

In Split, the long-standing wait for the trophy was finally over after the Croatian Cup final, that was played at their home Poljud Stadium. Following the victories over Primorac Biograd, Belišće, Lokomotiva, and Gorica, it was a victory over Rijeka (3:1) that finished the job.

In July, Croatian Supercup was played in Zagreb. After a 0:0 draw, Dinamo lifted the trophy courtesy of a penalty shootout win over Hajduk (4:1).

As league title holders, in 2022 Dinamo successfully overcame Shkupi from North Macedonia, Ludogorets from Bulgaria, and finally the Norwegian sensation Bodo/Glimt in a dramatic extra-time of the return leg, to reach the elite European club competition.

The highlight of this Champions League campaign, however, was the victory against the recent champions Chelsea at Maksimir Stadium. Mislav Oršić provided the run and the goal. Later on, Dinamo completed the group stage challenge behind Kovačić's team, Milan, and RB Salzburg.

It is worth mentioning that UEFA president Čeferin, UEFA chief of football Boban and HNS president Kustić all attended the Dinamo - Chelsea clash. "This victory echoes in Europe. This is a great night for Dinamo, Zagreb, and Croatia", Kustić sincerely congratulated.

Remaining Croatian representatives appeared in Europa Conference League qualifying: Osijek bid farewell in the second round against Kazakh side Kyzylzhar, while Rijeka bowed out against Swedish Djurgarden.

Hajduk started the qualifying campaign in the third round, and performed well in Split to eliminate Portuguese side Vitoria Guimaraes. Next stop was the strong Villarreal, with the Spaniards progressing with both wins.

Split and Osijek clashed once again to decide to women's domestic league title, and Split came out on top in 2022, only to take the Croatian Cup as well. Following the two-year reign of Olmissum, Novo vrijeme returned the futsal league title to Makarska.

HNS SECURES 44 MILLION EUROS FOR TV AND MEDIA RIGHTS

THE MOST LUCRATIVE CONTRACT IN HNL HISTORY

In 2022, HNS has signed one of its most important contracts, as the partner was selected for the television and media rights for the HNS competitions in the next four-year period.

Following the contract termination with Endorphin Magine, HNS management held meetings with companies interested in purchasing TV and media rights. Three official bids were received, by A1 Hrvatska, Hrvatski Telekom, and AB SportConsulting, alongside SuperSport bid for media rights.

HNS Executive Committee discussed the bids and opted for Hrvatski Telekom bid, the most lucrative bid that amounted to nine million euros per year. In four years, as per contract, Hrvatski Telekom will pay HNS 36 million euros for TV rights.

Moreover, SuperSport bid for media rights in amount of 1,5 million euro per year for sponsorship rights and 500.000 euros per years for betting rights was accepted. In total, HNS secured 44 million euros for television and media rights in the next four years. In addition, Hrvatski

Telekom and HRT agreed to broadcast one game per matchday on the national television.

The leaders of Croatian Football Federation, Hrvatski Telekom, and SuperSport have signed the television and marketing rights contract at a special ceremony in Hotel Westin in Zagreb. Thus, Hrvatski Telekom become the owner of television rights, and SuperSport of marketing rights for all the HNS matches. The contracts were signed until the end of 2025/2026 season.

This is the most lucrative agreement on television and marketing rights in history of domestic club football.

«I would like to thank the Hrvatski Telekom and SuperSport management for their confidence, and the respect they have showed to domestic football with such significant investment. We are especially happy to sign these important contracts with proven friends and partners of Croatian football. This gives us additional faith that together we will create even stronger, more attractive, and better domestic competitions.

There is no need to emphasize how much these funds mean to Croatian clubs - this is the most important contract in the history of domestic football and it affirms its market value. I am convinced that this value will increase further, due to this contract, and that this investment will be a smart move for our partners», said HNS president Marijan Kustić.

«I am overjoyed to continue our long-term cooperation with HNS. We always try to offer the best sports content to our users, and Croatian football definitely belongs to this category, since this content is interesting to fans of all Croatian clubs. This four-year partnership with HNS sets the foundation for further development of Croatian clubs, with the aim to enjoy in even better competitions, in better matches, in production of the leading pay-TV platform in Croatia», said Hrvatski Telekom board director Kostas Nebis, with board member Nataša Rapaić adding:

«Croatia is a sports nation where football has a special place and a special meaning, while the domestic league has never been so interesting. It's a pleasure to have the opportunity to transmit this excitement, these emotions, to Croatian public. These are the values we support as a company - connectivity, positivity, and creating new opportunities».

SuperSport, the new owner of marketing and betting rights, is happy to see this contract signed, says board member Goran Đurić:

«We're proud to become the direct partner of Croatian football, since we have already heavily invested in it. I believe we can all agree that the domestic competitions have never been so interesting, and we are convinced that this contract will allow the further development of both clubs and competitions. I would like to thank HNS for their confidence and we are truly happy to cooperate with HNS and Hrvatski Telekom in the further marketing, commercial and media development of domestic football».

«Football is the most popular, most important, and most followed sport in Croatia. The top tier produces the same viewership numbers and importance as the strongest football competitions such as the UEFA Champions League. Therefore, we are happy to sign this valuable contract that will enable the domestic football to grow, by all criteria. As market leaders, we are proud to offer the best content to our players», added SuperSport board member Radim Haluza.

«For HNS, and especially for Croatian clubs, the contract we signed today is of really historic importance. I would like to thank our partners, Hrvatski Telekom and SuperSport, for their confidence, and congratulate all the club who have raised the quality levels, with the support of Croatian Football Federation. They have created an interest that allowed this contract to be signed. An important role was also played by HNS project of field renovations. That shows that everyone - clubs, HNS, and local communities - should make the further development of stadium infrastructure a strategic point, in order to increase the value of our product», said HNS executive director Tomislav Svetina.

Following the signing and appropriate toasts, HNS management handed over Croatia national team shirts to Hrvatski Telekom and SuperSport leader, with numbers 2022 and 2026, in accordance with the contract duration.

INFRASTRUCTURE REMAINS AMONG THE HNS TOP PRIORITIES

In 2022, Croatian Football Federation continued to improve football infrastructure through various projects.

One of the projects that started in 2019 was continued in 2022 through opening nine more football fields with artificial turf, in Metković, Zagreb (Kustošija), Zelina, Karlovac, Kutina, Novi Marof, Požega, Gospić, and Osijek.

In total, artificial turf area in Croatian cities is 46,533 m². The renovation of the aforementioned fields was jointly financed by local communities, cities, or clubs, in cooperation with Croatian Football Federation. The local communities have supported the preparatory tasks and the necessary equipment, while the HNS took care of the purchase and the installation of the artificial turf.

Furthermore, in 2022 contracts were signed to renovate the fields in Labin, Vinkovci, and Zabok. These works were expected to be completed in 2022, but due to delays regarding certain obligations of the city governments and currently unfavourable weather conditions, they are now expected to be completed in the first half of 2023.

Back in 2021, Croatian Football Federation has applied to FIFA

Foundation Recovery Programme, the project intended to help with the damage caused by the earthquakes, to rebuild the damaged football infrastructure in the County of Sisak-Moslavina, in Karlovac, and in Zagreb. Following this application, in 2022 Croatian Football Federation was granted 500,000 USD to be donated to aid the earthquake-struck regions.

Croatian Football Federation Executive Committee has decided to allocate 150,000 USD of these FIFA-donated funds to football clubs in Zagreb and the Zagreb Football Federation, and 350,000 USD to the County of Sisak-Moslavina and Karlovac.

FIFA AND UEFA PRESIDENTS HOST HNS MANAGEMENT

High delegation of Croatian Football Federation, led by president Marijan Kustić, visited UEFA president Aleksander Čeferin and his closest associates in April.

The meeting of UEFA and HNS leaders was held in the UEFA headquarters in Nyon. Alongside president Kustić, president Čeferin welcomed HNS executive director Tomislav Svetina and technical director Stipe Pletikosa. Among the hosts, there were UEFA chief of football Zvonimir Boban and head of national associations Zoran Laković.

«We are proud to see Croatian football so respected within UEFA, as well as to enjoy the quality cooperation with UEFA involving many projects. We are glad that UEFA president following Croatian domestic competitions, and we have also discussed the number of challenges in modern European football», said president Kustić.

«It was a pleasure to host the HNS delegation, since HNS is both on and off the field one of the most successful medium-sized association in Europe. In previous years, HNS made significant steps forward in building the infrastructure throughout the country, and will continue to enjoy UEFA support to keep on that track», said president Čeferin.

In September, HNS delegation led by president Kustić was also welcomed to the FIFA office in Paris, with president Gianni Infantino as the host.

Alongside president Kustić, HNS delegation included first vice-president Ante Vučemilović-Šimunović, executive director Tomislav Svetina, technical director Stipe Pletikosa and head of international affairs and licensing Ivančica Sudac.

«It was a great pleasure to welcome my friend, president Kustić. Since his election in 2021, Croatian football has continued to grow, from grassroots level to the biggest stage of international football, FIFA World Cup. This beautiful country remains an extraordinary example of good management, elite football development and continuous progress», emphasized Infantino.

The HNS delegation also discussed the alternative sources of funding for national associations, as well as infrastructure investments, women's and grassroots football.

«HNS is successfully using the available funds, and we have discussed other options to cooperate with FIFA to further develop football in Croatia. It was nice to hear all the praise for Croatian football and our national team, and our obligation remains to continue with hard work and to invest, in order to justify the image Croatia enjoys in the world of football», said Kustić.

HVAR HOSTS UEFA EXCO MEETING AND "FOOTBALL IN SCHOOLS" GRASSROOTS FESTIVAL

This summer, one of the focal points of European football was the island of Hvar, that hosted the UEFA Executive Committee meeting, alongside Grassroots festival "Football in Schools".

UEFA Executive Committee, with Davor Šuker as the Croatian representative, reached several decisions, including the appointment of Croatia as the host of the U-19 Futsal EURO final tournament in 2023.

Grassroots festival "Football in Schools" was held at the NK Hvar ground, and many famous names of Croatian and European football came to the beautiful Croatian island.

"Football in Schools" is a modern football festival that promotes the values of massification of football and the importance of football development in schools, with the support of legendary players.

The festival was the introduction of UEFA Grassroots Week, and was attended by UEFA president Aleksander Čeferin, HNS president Marijan Kustić, and football superstars Luis Figo, Zvonimir Boban, Davor Šuker, Dejan Savićević, Robbie Keane, Darijo Srna, Nadine Kessler, Ricardinho, and others. At the opening ceremony, they have played a friendly match with girls and boys from Hvar.

Following the Hvar festival, UEFA announced that 2.4 million children from 44,000 schools already takes part in the programme, just two years since the beginning. Over 100,000 teachers have completed the education for football practice sessions. Throughout the first four years, UEFA will invest 24 million euros.

«We have seen true football legends and our children in the same place. The kids will cherish this days as an inspiration to play football. Led by president Čeferin, UEFA puts in a lot of effort to develop and promote grassroots football. HNS does the same», said HNS president Marijan Kustić.

CROATIAN REFEREES CONTINUE TO APPEAR AT THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE

FIFA showed confidence in Croatia women's referees Ivana Martinčić and Sanja Rođak-Karšić, who have been selected for the FIFA Women's World Cup in Australia and New Zealand - Ivana Martinčić as the referee, and Sanja Rođak-Karšić as the assistant referee. They will be among the 33 referees and 55 assistant referees at the competition that is scheduled from 20 July to 20 August 2023.

Ivana Martinčić took part as one of the four European referees at the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in India.

Alongside Sanja Rođak-Karšić, she was also at the European Championships in England, where Blaženka Logarušić was appointed the referee observer. Martinčić was selected among 13 referees, and Rođak-Karšić among the 25 assistant referees.

Dario Bel and Luka Pušić were appointed among the referee officials in the U-17 European Championship final in Israel: Bel as the fourth referee, and Pušić as the second assistant referee, as France faced Netherlands. At this tournament, Bel was among the 12 referees, and Pušić among the 12 assistant referees. In group stage, they were appointed at three matches (Spain - Turkey, Scotland - Denmark, Germany - Israel), they've continued in the knockout stages, including the Germany - France quarterfinal, and the France - Portugal semifinal.

Nikola Jelić and Vedran Babić were appointed to the UEFA Futsal Champions League final. Another proof of how much UEFA trusts them and their quality is the UEFA Futsal EURO semifinal between Portugal and Spain. There, in Netherlands, Croatian referee expert Ivan Novak was appointed referee observer for the final match. That was his tenth Futsal EURO tournament: three times he was among the referees, and seven times as the instructor and observer, including two finals.

Edi Šunjić got the vote of confidence as he was appointed referee observer at the UEFA Women's Futsal EURO in Porto.

UEFA has also trusted the vice-president of the Croatian Football Federation Referees' Committee Vlado Svilokos. He was appointed the referee observer at the UEFA Champions League group stage match between Real Madrid and Celtic. During the previous three years, he was one of the four coaches for young referees in CORE Excellence Programme, working in a team that included well-known names such as Manuel Diaz Vega from Spain, Nuno Castro from Portugal and leader coach Kyros Vassaras from Greece, a member of UEFA Referees' Committee. CORE Excellence Programme is intended for 24 young referees in eight teams. They are also supported by two assistant referees' coaches and two fitness coaches.

Croatian Football Federation started to cooperate with Cyprus FA and Bulgaria Football Union and agreed the referee exchanges and knowledge development.

The agreement with Cyprus FA included the exchange of elite or talented and perspective referees with expert knowledge, technical and game management skills at the highest level in both countries, to be implemented on reciprocity basis in 2022/2023 season. The objectives were the exchange of technical knowledge and experience, gaining international experience and improving the quality, with minimum requirements including a place at the active top list of officials in the country for the 2022/2023 season, understanding of English language and no discipline sanctions in respective domestic leagues.

The exchange programme brought the Bulgarian referees to SuperSport HNL encounter Varaždin - Gorica on Matchday 8, while Croatian officials were appointed in Bulgaria's Efbet League. BFU and HNS agreed the exchange of referees from the UEFA Core Programme for one top-tier match.

In SuperSport HNL, Radoslav Gidzenov was appointed referee, with Georgi Minev and Georgi Stamboldzhiev as assistant referees. On the other hand, on 3 September, Ante Čulina was the appointed referee at the Spartak Varna - CSKA Sofia encounter, with Darko Kolarević and Ivan Starčević as assistant referees. A day later, Čulina was the fourth referee at the Ludogorets - Hebar league encounter. The BFU head of refereeing is the famous Victor Kassai, a mentor of Croatian referees Ante Čulina and Dario Bel.

#ThanksŠime

FIRST ŠIME'S POST NO ONE IS GOING TO LIKE

Šime Vrsaljko decided to close his international career: another member of silver-winning generation to step down. Tired of numerous injuries that interfered with his continuity in Croatia national team following the World Cup in Russia.

Šime stopped at 52 caps, including the four major competitions - two World Cups (2014, 2018) and two European Championships (2016, 2021). He made his first appearance on 9 February 2011 in a friendly vs. Czech Republic in Pula, and his international career grew with every new encounter, and peaked four years ago in Russia, when Croatia won the silver medal.

His Instagram live from Croatia dressing room following the semifinal victory over England has immediately become a part of contemporary Croatian social sphere anthology, a theme of behind the scenes events during the World Cup in Russia, when Croatia internationals thrilled the world not just with football skills, but also with openness, spontaneity, sense of humor, youthful cheerfulness, infectious optimism, pride, sporting defiance...

Šime stopped at 52 caps, including the four major competitions - two World Cups (2014, 2018) and two European Championships (2016, 2021).

It is actually difficult to say what was a more iconic moment from these glorious days in Moscow: Vrsaljko's urbi et orbi from the dressing room, or the photo where he is blissfully sleeping - making his football dreams come true, securing a berth to the World Cup final.

«I just felt like it, to lie down on the flag, and the expression on my face says it all. I am happy that this image of me lying down on Croatian flag, with my eyes closed, and a smile on my face, left such an impression and now clearly represents how passionate and proud we are to play for the national team. I am happy that it became a symbol of our achievement in Russia».

Thus spoke Šime on the greatest moment of his international career - and the careers of his international teammates. Besides great performances, he will be remembered as the team spirit's creative force and positive energy generator. On and off the field. In good days, and bad days. Anyway, it is enough to check the video co-production by Vrsaljko and Lovren from Russia '18 once again, to laugh at Šime's caricatured derivative »Aj laaajk« that went viral on social media those days.

The social media will go viral these days too... with a significant difference. His post, for the first time, will not be liked.

DOMAGOJ VIDA: TO LIVE A HUNDRED!

It was 23 May 2010. Croatia was playing a friendly against Wales at Gradski Vrt Stadium, and team captain Darijo Srna was substituted on 80 minutes. On came a promising 21-year-old.

Many years have passed, but the memories remain fresh.

«How would they not be? I'll remember the first Croatia appearance for the rest of my life, at a stadium that will always be dear to me. I was so proud, my childhood dream came true...».

On one of the most significant days of his career, thus spoke Domagoj Vida, who celebrated his 100th Croatia cap in a friendly in Riyadh, against Saudi Arabia. From Gradski Vrt to Riyadh... 100 matches in his favourite shirt. All played with the same enthusiasm and boyish rapture as the first one. With equal desire and passion, with equal approach. He never feared the opponent or backed down. Always playing with an open stance and an open heart. For Croatia. He simply doesn't know any other way.

«I'm at 100 percent in every match. If I fall to 80 percent, it's very much visible on the field. It cannot be hidden, one can see from a plane if I'm not going all the way. Fortunately, there haven't been many such matches, I'm always completely focused and it's never difficult to invest maximum effort for the team. I was playing even at right back and left back when the head coaches decided it was necessary. I was always a team player, and it remains so. I was never counting my achievements - I was always in the service of team's success. And that will never change».

There was grief, too. For instance, in Lens. The «most beautiful game» played a cruel joke on the Vatreni that day. It was a game that happens once in a lifetime. Until Quaresma's goal in the 117th minute, the attacking potential of both teams was shackled by a careful approach, and among many superstar forwards such as Cristiano Ronaldo and Mario Mandžukić, Domagoj Vida missed the best opportunities. The first, the second, the third...

«Each time I was getting closer and closer. The first one flew half a metre by the post, the second one just inches wide, and the last one was measured in millimetres. I have already seen it go in. It just wouldn't go in. I was guarding Cristiano Ronaldo that day, one of the best players of all-time, and he didn't touch the ball until 117th minute. As a defender, I did my job very well. Still... I was wondering what have I done wrong in life to have such misfortune».

The tide finally turned in Russia. In Vida's case, especially in Sochi, in the World Cup quarterfinals, in the match where he proved that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. His dad Rudika, a former striker, could have been proud of Domagoj's goalscoring skills. First, he scored a header in extra-time, and then beautifully converted a penalty in the shootout, when Croatia secured the semifinal berth. The rest is history, gilded silver history.

Time flies. Before the World Cup in Qatar, where Vatreni arrived as the current vice-champions of the world, with Domagoj Vida as one of the most experienced players. Important both on and off the field. The magical barrier is broken, Domagoj Vida has entered the club of the rare, privileged players.

He's earned it, 100 percent!

CROATIAN FOOTBALL PLAYERS WINNERS OF THE UEFA EUROPEAN CUP AND THE UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

LUKA MODRIĆ WINS FIFTH CHAMPIONS LEAGUE TITLE, ADDS A SUPERCUP

In 2022, Croatia captain Luka Modrić added another chapter to the story of how age is just a number, winning the prestigious Champions League once again, and the European Supercup later on.

Real Madrid climbed to the European throne for the 14th time, defeating Liverpool 1:0 in Paris, with Luka Modrić providing spectacular performances on the road to the final, against PSG, Chelsea, and Manchester City. In the final, he contributed from the first minute, until the closing stages.

That was Modrić's fifth Champions League title, after his triumphs in 2014, 2016, 2017, and 2018.

With that trophy in his hands, he continued the fantastic streak of Croatian footballer, who are winning the Champions League title every single season since 2013 (Mandžukić, Modrić, Rakitić, Modrić/Kovačić, Modrić/Kovačić, Modrić/Kovačić, Lovren, Perišić, Kovačić, Modrić).

As the champions of Europe, Real Madrid did not miss out on the opportunity to win the European Supercup as well, in August, against Europa League champions Eintracht Frankfurt.

In Helsinki, Modrić was in the starting lineup, to be substituted on 67 minutes, with Real Madrid overcoming Kristijan Jakić and Hrvoje Smolčić's team 2:0. Thus, Croatia captain celebrated his fourth European Supercup trophy, following 2014, 2016, and 2017.

JAKIĆ AND BARIŠIĆ MEET IN EUROPEAN FINAL:

TROPHY GOES TO FRANKFURT

The Europa League final of the 2021/2022 season saw two Croatia internationals in action: Kristijan Jakić and Borna Barišić. After the final whistle, Eintracht's Jakić had more reasons to celebrate.

Barišić was named in the Glasgow Rangers' starting lineup, and his team took the lead on 57 minutes, courtesy of Aribo, while the German side equalized as Borre found the net 12 minute later.

In the closing minutes, Jakić came on as a substitute for Rode, and the match went into extra-time, and later in the penalty shootout drama. Barišić was substituted just minutes before due to injury.

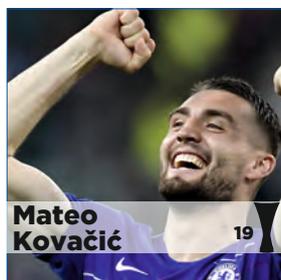

All of Eintracht's penalty takers converted the kicks, while goalie Trapp stopped Ramsey's shot, and sent Eintracht fans into rapture.

Thus, Jakić managed to win a major European trophy in his first season at Eintracht, the team he joined from Dinamo Zagreb. His Europa League campaign will be also remembered by an excellent streak without defeat, that included the elimination of Barcelona in the quarterfinals.

As 2022 was coming to an end, Jakić and Barišić made the year even better. In Qatar...

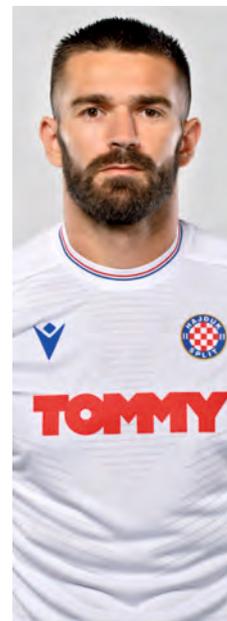

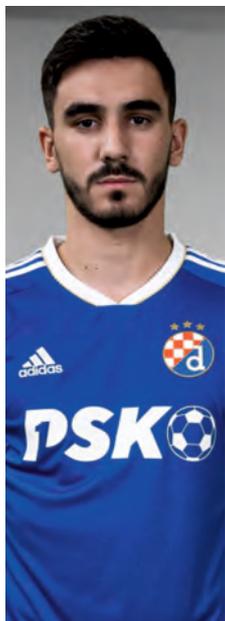

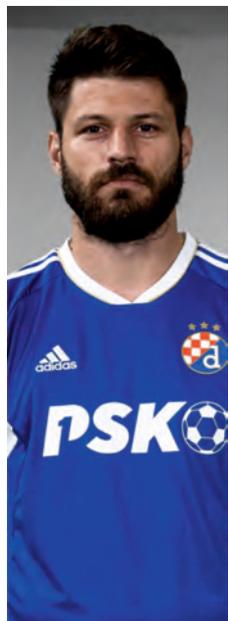

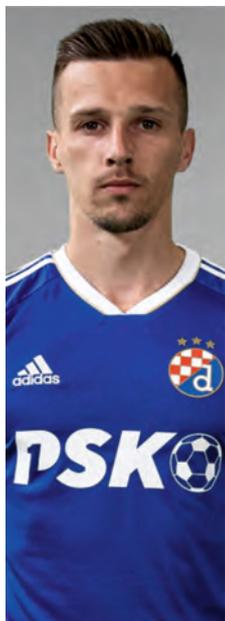

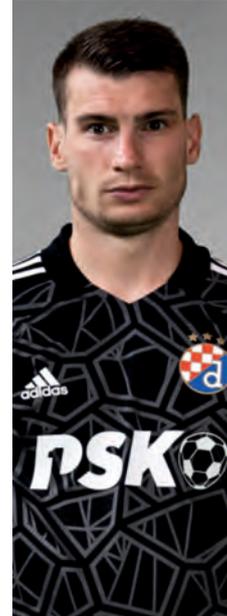

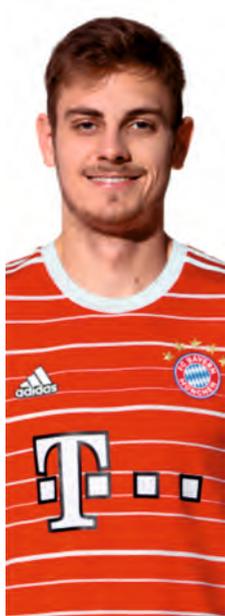

CROATIAN FOOTBALL PLAYERS WINNERS OF THE UEFA CUP AND THE UEFA EUROPA LEAGUE

CROATIA INTERNATIONALS IN NATIONAL COMPETITIONS

It was a very successful year for Croatian players in their respective national competitions. Among the current Croatia internationals, Luka Modrić celebrated his third Spanish league title with Real Madrid, Ivan Perišić and Marcelo Brozović won the Italian Cup and Supercup with Inter, while Dejan Lovren won the Russian championship with Zenit. Josip Stanišić won the Bundesliga title with Bayern, and Josip Juranović took both the league and league-cup titles with Celtic. Scottish Cup title went to Borna Barišić and Glasgow Rangers, while Joško Gvardiol took the German Cup title with Red Bull Leipzig. Domagoj Vida celebrated the Turkish Supercup title with Besiktas. In Croatia, Dinamo's Domagoj Livaković, Mislav Oršić, Bruno Petković, and Josip Šutalo became the domestic champions and Supercup winners, and Marko Livaja of Hajduk claimed the remaining Croatian trophy, the Croatian Cup.

HNS JOINS UEFA AND DISNEY TO PRESENT THE INNOVATIVE PLAYMAKERS PROGRAMME

Since March 2022, girls throughout Croatia have the opportunity to join the UEFA Playmakers programme and to learn to love football through innovative, fun practice sessions that follow the storylines of the most popular Disney animated movies.

UEFA Playmakers is a pan-European programme to promote women's football, created in UEFA's cooperation with Disney, and Croatian Football Federation introduced it to Croatia in March 2022. It is intended for girls aged 5 to 8, and it is adapted to the girls that haven't played football before, or any other sport. Following 2022, the programme will be also active in 2023.

In Croatia, these events are held in 30 football centers throughout the country. In most cases, the practice sessions are held at the fields or in the halls of the women's football clubs, in order to allow girls to join these clubs after participating in the UEFA Playmakers programme, and to continue to play football.

UEFA Playmakers' ambassador in Croatia is the famous former Vatreni, the current Croatia U-19 coach Niko Kranjčar, who emphasized the importance of playtime to encourage kids to join sports activities:

«I like this programme for more than one reason. I'm a big fan of animated movies, especially Disney, and I'm a big fan of sports, and I believe that every kid should have the opportunity to join practice sessions. This initiative is a great way to develop the sports' habit among girls, through games and playfulness - that is, I believe, the most important part of sports».

In the first campaign only, over 730 girls participated in the programme. Over 150 answered the call in Zadar, while many came in Osijek, Vinkovci, Slavonski Brod, Koprivnica, Pula, and Zagreb.

«The development of women's football and encouraging girls to play football are important objectives of the Croatian Football Federation. We believe that this programme, alongside other women's football development programmes already in motion, can be very useful to develop our women's football base. As an experienced coach who worked in youth categories, and as the head instructor who works with young players, I really see plenty of potential in the UEFA Playmakers' approach. I believe that games and acting are an excellent way of presenting football to girls, to lay the foundation for their careers through a positive, fun experience», said HNS head instructor Petar Krpan.

HNS PRESENTS THE PREVENTIVE CAMPAIGN "WE ARE ALL ONE FAMILY"

In November 2022, Croatian Football Federation presented the promotional campaign "We are all one family", with the objective of sending a strong, unique message of the football family, that any kind of discrimination is not acceptable.

In three promotional videos of the Croatian Football Federation, players of all ten clubs from the SuperSport Croatian Football League are represented, as well as the players from the Football Club Parag, the club of the Roma national minority. Alongside Croatia internationals Dominik Livaković, Bruno Petković, Mislav Oršić, Lovre Kalinić, Marko Livaja, Ivica Ivušić, and Nedjeljko Labrović, videos include players of all 32 nationalities that are represented in the top tier of Croatian football. Each of them sends a simple, powerful message in his mother tongue: "We are all one family".

This campaign is the product of the October meeting, where HNS Committee for Professional Football and HNS Security Committee representatives were joined by all SuperSport Croatian Football League clubs. In the meeting, HNS warned of the increase of the unacceptable and discriminatory messages, as well as hate speech in the stands. Simultaneously, HNS presented the decision to use the fines collected from the clubs for racist and other discriminatory behaviour for preventive projects, in order to decrease the frequency of unacceptable behaviour.

«I am happy to see all the clubs cooperate with HNS in this project. This is the best confirmation of the unique stance of the entire football family, that racism and any other form of discrimination at our stadiums are unacceptable. I would like to thank all the clubs and players: they have been an example, to show that there is no room for racism and discrimination in Croatia, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, or any other orientation», said HNS president Marijan Kustić.

«To think out of the box, to cooperate with the scientific community, is a strategic HNS objective. We would like to thank the Faculty of Education and Rehabilitation - their expertise and scientific contribution have helped to create this preventive video campaign, aimed at the entire population. The targeted group are especially the young ones, who will see this video on digital platforms and social media», said Jurica Jurjević, HNS head of prevention, safety and integrity.

The videos from the "We are all one family" campaign were broadcasted during the live broadcasts of the SuperSport Croatian Football League at MAXsport TV, and were posted at the Croatian Football Federation official social media channels.

CROATIAN FOOTBALL FEDERATION HOLDS DEVELOPMENT CAMPS IN NORTH AMERICA

Led by president Marijan Kustić, HNS delegation travelled to North America in July 2022, to oversee the development camps in Norval and Cleveland.

Alongside president Kustić, HNS delegation in North America included vice-president Mario Smodlaka, Executive Committee member and Diaspora Committee president Ante Kulušić, HNS head instructor Petar Krpan, and technical director of senior and U-21 national teams Stipe Pletikosa. Moreover, women's football coordinator Božidar Miletić, Football Center Osijek instructor Marin Smoje, Football Center Rijeka instructor Mladen Ivančić, fitness instructor Ivan Krakan and goalkeeping coach Darko Staneković have also contributed to camps' activities.

The diaspora camps were aimed to gather young players with Croatian citizenship in various age categories, in order to discover and recognize talented players and coordinate their development, as well as promote Croatian Football Federation in North America. Furthermore, the objective was also to create and strengthen sporting and business relations, to gather Croatian experts in working with youth categories, and to allow young, developing coaches to follow the workflow in the camp.

The first of these two diaspora camps was organized by Football Club Croatia Norval, in the Canadian city of Norval. During four days, it hosted 86 boys and girls aged 12 to 15. The second camp, held in the USA, was organized by Croatia Cleveland Football Club, hosting 55 boys and girls.

«These camps in Norval and Cleveland were superbly organized, and they have confirmed that there is plenty of interest of our expatriates for the Croatian Football Federation activities in this part of the world. That makes us happy, as we are aware of the great diaspora potential, and I am glad that many of our young players - through decisions to play for Croatia - have affirmed the commitment to Croatia national team, that is very much alive in Croatian families living abroad. With that in mind, these camps aim to further strengthen this segment of action, since Croatia is a small country and we have to find every talented player, whether at home or abroad», said the HNS president Marijan Kustić.

Alongside the Advanced Studies Certificate, Bahtijarević also earned the Certificate of Distinction as one of the two best students. "I am convinced that this UEFA Academy programme, as well as the knowledge sharing experience with the colleagues from other national associations, can significantly help in my further career", said Bahtijarević.

HNS EMPLOYEES AT UEFA GRASSROOTS CONFERENCE

HNS youth competitions administrator and youth, women, and futsal national teams match manager Hrvoje Hrkač, and grassroots assistant Helenna Hercigonja Moulton, have attended the four-day UEFA Grassroots Conference in Madrid. During the conference, many workshops, panels, and presentations were organized, to minutely show the progress in the desire to keep the foundations of the "most beautiful game" as firm as ever.

OFFICIALS

LAW & FOOTBALL CONFERENCE HELD IN OPATIJA

Organized by student associations of the Faculties of Law of the Universities in Zagreb, Rijeka, Osijek, and Split, Opatija hosted the expert conference "Law & Football 2022". Several distinguished HNS officials attended: secretary Vladimira Iveta held a lecture on "Eligibility to play for the national team", while head of licensing Ivančica Sudac, expert associate on international affairs and licensing Tanja Peraković, and women's football instructor at Football Centre Zagreb Marija Margareta Damjanović participated in the "Women in Football" panel.

HNS REPRESENTATIVES AT THE SPORTS MANAGEMENT IN TOURISM CONGRESS

HNS head of communications Tomislav Pacak and head of marketing Ante Cicvarić attended the 5th Sports Management in Tourism Congress in Osijek. Pacak and Cicvarić represented Croatian Football Federation in the panel on Croatia's appearance at the 2022 FIFA World Cup and Croatia's international promotion through football.

UEFA SEMINAR OF CHILD SAFEGUARDING

HNS grassroots assistant Helenna Hercigonja-Moulton represented Croatian Football Federation at the UEFA seminar on child safeguarding in football, that was held mid-November in Belgium. Alongside the topic of introducing child safeguarding measures in European national associations, the topics of child medical care in football and child abuse prevention were also discussed, as well as the examples of good practice when working with children in the national associations and clubs, and the latest research on child safeguarding in sports.

GRASSROOTS

HNS COOPERATES WITH CROATIAN SCHOOL SPORTS FEDERATION

HNS and Croatian School Sports Federation have agreed to cooperate regarding the new school competition "Mini Football" for boys and girls up to 13 years of age (5th and 6th grade of elementary school), the first that the HSSS will organize and implement in cooperation with the football clubs, outside educational institutions, in the form of extracurricular activities. The agreement was signed by HNS president Marijan Kustić, HSSS general secretary Ivan Dujić, in the presence of HNS head instructor Petar Krpan and HNS grassroots manager Antonio Grahovac.

PEER ABUSE PREVENTION

In the HNS headquarters, the first meeting was held of the PINBALL (Preventing bullying in and through football) project coordinators. The objective of the project is to prevent peer abuse among the young men and women players. In the three upcoming years, PINBALL project wants to implement the programme of the uniform education of coaches on recognizing peer abuse and timely and adequate reaction to peer abuse in clubs and national teams, and to promote awareness of bullying among the youth in football world, and their families as well.

GRASSROOTS FESTIVAL AT HVAR

UEFA Grassroots Festival "Football in Schools" was held at the NK Hvar ground. This beautiful Croatian island hosted the legends of Croatian and European football. The festival was the introduction of UEFA Grassroots Week, and was attended by UEFA president Aleksander Čeferin, HNS president Marijan Kustić, and football superstars Luis Figo, Zvonimir Boban, Davor Šuker, Dejan Savičević, Robbie Keane, Darijo Srna, and others. At the opening ceremony, they have played a friendly match with girls and boys from Hvar.

Several legends of Croatian football, who have significantly contributed to the development of the beautiful game, have passed away in 2022.

In January, Ante Pavlović and Stjepan «Štef» Lamza died. Ante Pavlović was one of the most prominent and most longevous officials in Croatian football, the man who made a couple of key moves to allow Croatia national team to play its historic first match against the United States on 17 October 1990. Stjepan Lamza was a long-standing player of Dinamo, a member of a fabulous generation that rewrote history by winning a European trophy in 1967, the Inter-Cities Fair Cup.

Ante Pavlović was born on 5 July 1933 in Metković. He graduated in Zagreb at the Technical Faculty, at the Mining, Geology, and Oil Department. An injury cut his playing career short in 1953, but that became the beginning of his rise as an official. He left a deep mark in Croatian football.

Throughout his career, he retained his commitment and love towards working with younger generations.

From 1962, he was working as the HNS secretary. He strongly contributed to the development of the sports infrastructure in Zagreb, as well as to the development of futsal and women's football in Croatia. Pavlović was the founder of many competitions, tournaments, and awards, all the while keeping in touch with Croats living abroad.

Twenty years later, in 1982 he took the job of the managing director in Dinamo, and immediately won the Yugoslav league title, after 23 years of waiting in Zagreb.

In the late 80s, Pavlović became the chief secretary of the Yugoslav Football Federation, where he remained until 1991, helping to found the independent Croatian Football Federation.

Coming back to Croatian Football Federation in 1992, he had an advisory role. For ten months in 1995, Pavlović has been holding the office of the HNS chief secretary, and in 1995 and 1996 he was a member of the Executive Committee. Pavlović retired in 2013, in a well-deserved move.

Among other awards, he received the HNS Trofej podmlatka award, national award Red Danice Hrvatske, state award for sports Franjo Bučar, and prestigious UEFA Order of Merit in Emerald. In 2018, Pavlović was proclaimed the first HNS honorary chief secretary.

Stjepan Lamza was born on 23 January 1940 in Sisak, where he started his playing career, and before joining Dinamo he has defended the colours of Branik Maribor. Lamza was a versatile midfielder who won over the crowds with fantastic moves, and his epic performance in the return semi-final leg of the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup against Eintracht is still remembered. Driven by Lamza, Dinamo responded to the first-leg defeat: winning 4:0 to reach the final. He appeared 281 times in Dinamo's shirt and scored 72 goals.

In March, Željko Huber passed away. He was the former HNS president during the 1980s, and the president of NK Osijek on two occasions. Born on 26 February 1930 in Babina Greda, he quickly fell in love with football, started to practice and play as a goalkeeper in Hajduk (Osijek), Proleter, Šparta Beli Manastir, and Lovor Nijemci. As a prominent sports official, he became the HNS president from 1981 to 1982, and the distinguished president of the Slavonia-Baranja Football Association for six years. In 2017, he won the Trofej podmlatka award.
